REVISION SHOOTER MAX MICHEL SET TO BREAK RECORDS WITH TWO RECENT USPSA AREA MATCH WINS

Essex Junction, VT, USA (August 10, 2010) – Max Michel, champion shooter for Revision Eyewear, won his fifth and sixth United States Practical Shooting Association (USPSA) Area Championships for the 2010 competitive season this past weekend in his bid to become the first pro shooter in history to win all eight in a single year. Michel won the Open Division title at the Area 7 Championships, held in Fulton, NY on August 5th – 8th, 2010 and took home the Open Division title at the 2010 Hornady Area 3 Championship Match, held in Grand Island, NE, August 6th – 8th, 2010.

"The 2010 season is turning out to be a great year for me," commented Max. On the possibility of winning all 8 USPSA Area Championships this year, Michel responded, "While I am aware that I have a shot at making history, I am focusing more on the task at hand rather than the end result. I will have the rest of my life to reflect on personal accomplishments but I must remain focused on the present to do so."

Michel's next competition is the Steel Challenge World Speed Shooting Championship in Piru, CA on August 19th – 21st, 2010.

ABOUT MAX MICHEL

In 2010, world champion shooter Max Michel joined forces with Revision Eyewear in a partnership founded on mutual performance excellence. At age 28 Max Michel is a legend within the world of competitive shooting. A three-time IPSC World Speed Shooting Champion, five-time USPSA National Champion, and two-time US National Steel Champion, Max is a dominant force in the pistol shooting sports. Born and raised in New Orleans, Max joined the famed U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit (USAMU) Action Pistol Team in 1999 where he served for 10 years as an Army shooter and trainer. Today, Max is recognized worldwide as a top tier athlete in the practical shooting sports and Revision is proud to be Max's eyepro brand of choice – both on the range and off.
