MAX MICHEL, CHAMPION SHOOTER FOR REVISION EYEWEAR, WINS FIFTH DOUBLE TAP CHAMPIONSHIP

Essex Junction, VT, USA (March 24, 2010) – Revision Eyewear, leading developer of ballistic protective eyewear for military and law enforcement forces worldwide, proudly announces that champion shooter, Max Michel, won his fifth Double Tap Championship held in Wichita Falls, TX, from March 19th through to the 21st. This Annual competition, hosted by the International Practical Shooting Confederation[®] (IPSC), with nearly 350 contestants, was the second largest IPSC match in 2009 and looks to follow suit again for 2010. Max won the Double Tap Championship in 2008, 2007, 2006 and 2005. He did not attend in 2009 due to a scheduling conflict with the US Steel National Championship.

“My Revision eye pro gave me the edge I needed in the Double Tap Championship with unsurpassed field-of-vision and clarity,” Max Michel commented. “They stayed fog-free even as the competition heated up.”

Max Michel’s next competition is the US Steel National Championship in Titusville, Florida, March 24th to the 29th, 2010.
